Communications from Mayor: The Digital Factory hopes to have a ribbon cutting May 31, 2011 at the old Airport Office.

Trainer is in school this week to get it started. We have had about 30 applications picked up and turned in.

Storm recovery- we are trying to get shed demolished, and replaced with a metal shed with the insurance money.

Brush truck is out with driver trying to get all the brush picked up.

Joseph Fisher has had several people ask about storm relief shelter locations. He stated that this might need to be published for people to know where to go during storms. Kevin Cagle stated that they are posted at www.parsonswater.com.

The local radio station is also announcing area churches that open up their basements for people.

Regular Monthly Meeting May 2, 2011

Mayor Boaz stated that the Digital Factory is made possible with a Grant. Shane Bridges, Director of Digital Factory, said it is exciting project. Perry County is helping a lot of people with their program. They have a lot of companies who are waiting in line to hire people after they are trained. Hopefully this will be a big boom to our City and County.
