II: FIRST READING ON ORDINANCE NO 364 AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING CONVEYANCE OF LAND TO DENNIS AND AMY MCKENZIE

This is approximately 1.5 acres of land located on 9th Street . Dennis McKenize state his plan include a type of sportplex. “ We want to set up something for the kids.” explained McKenize. “A lot of them are driving out of town o do this-batting lessons, hitting lessons.

We want to set up a little gym type for the average, middle class citizens. Build something nice and something you can be proud of. Me and my wife have been blessed and we"d like to give back. The discussion also led into maybe even a turf covering inside to be used for soccer or flag football and maybe even a walking trail inside the 12, 000 square foot building to be used for the parents and grandparents as the kids use the other parts of the facility. Other plans include a weight room , aeribics and according to McKenzie “something for all ages”.

Scott Fisher, owner of Parsons Fitness Center, addressed the council before the vote was taken and told members he “had no idea that any land was for sale, and it had not been advertised.”

“ The fitness gym and hitting lessons is a living for me and I've been looking for a place.”

acknowledge Fisher. “All I'm asking is for a fair playing field and come back and make an offer.”

Mayor Tim David Boaz presented Parsons Fire Chief Dale King with a plaque for the hard work by King and the entire department. Parsons now has an ISO rating of a 3, which only 3.6% of nationwide (full time and volunteer) fire stations rate. Chief King stated that the department started over two and a half years ago after being told it couldn't be done. Not only did the Parsons Fire Department get the 3 rating, but the actual score was half-way between a 2 and a 3.

Motion to adjourn by Kevin Cagle. Second by Marty Carrington. Vote: All Ayes
